

Quarterly Harbor Report

The harbor received many ships this quarter, and the weather stayed calm for most of the season. Dock workers unloaded grain, timber, and machinery while the port authority planned a new pier for the coming year.

Footnote: the figures above are provisional and will be revised after the annual audit. Tonnage is reported in metric tons and includes transit cargo.

Signed, the port authority